

Which Christian Education Path Fits Your Family?

A guide to help you determine the right online Christian education path that fits your family's needs and values.

1 What's most important to you in your child's education? Select up to two.

- 2 pts A Christ-centered curriculum rooted in a biblical worldview
- 2 pts College preparation and academic rigor
- 2 pts Flexible online learning that supports our family schedule
- 2 pts Classical education focused on critical thinking and communication
- 2 pts Teachers who personally invest in our child's spiritual and academic growth

2 What grade level is your child entering?

- 0 pts Grammar School (Grade 3–6)
- 0 pts School of Logic (Grades 7–8)
- 0 pts School of Rhetoric (Grades 9–12)
- 2 pts Younger than Grade 3 (Looking ahead)

3 What best describes your current school setup?

- 2 pts Full-time homeschool
- 2 pts Traditional brick-and-mortar Christian school
- 2 pts Currently enrolled in online or hybrid learning
- 2 pts Still deciding

PAGE TOTAL

Path 1 Path 2 Path 3 All Paths eligible

If you're new to it: Classical Christian education teaches students how to think, not just what to think—using the tools of grammar, logic, and rhetoric, all rooted in the truth of Scripture. In partnership with parents, teachers consistently point students to Christ, helping them grow in their love for what is beautiful, good, and true and preparing them to think deeply, communicate effectively, and live faithfully in service to God and others.

4 Are you familiar with Classical Christian Education?

- 2 pts Yes—and we love the sound of it
- 2 pts Yes—but unsure if it's right for our family
- 2 pts Not really—we're just beginning to explore

5 What are your biggest concerns with your current educational approach?

- 2 pts Burnout from trying to teach and parent simultaneously
- 2 pts Lack of curriculum that aligns with our Christian values
- 2 pts Feeling isolated or disconnected from a supportive community
- 2 pts Worrying our child isn't academically prepared for college
- 2 pts A school environment that doesn't reflect our beliefs

6 How would you describe your child's learning style?

- 2 pts Thinker—curious, asks big questions, likes discussion
- 2 pts Creative—enjoys writing, art, music, or performance
- 2 pts Structured—prefers clear expectations and organization
- 2 pts Tech-comfortable—does well in online settings
- 2 pts Relational—thrives through connection and community

7 What is your ideal level of involvement in your child's academics?

- 2 pts I want to lead most of the teaching myself
- 2 pts I'd prefer to co-teach with support from outside educators
- 2 pts I want qualified teachers to lead, while I focus on parenting and discipleship

TOTAL

- Path 1
- Path 2
- Path 3
- All Paths eligible

Results

Tally your answers to discover the path that may best serve your family:

If 10+ points

Recommend Path 1

If 6+ points and not more than Path 1

Recommend Path 2

If 6+ points and clearly the top score

Recommend Path 3

In case of a tie or balance between Path 1 and 2, we recommend Path 2 as a stepping stone to explore full-time in the future.

PATH 1: Classical Christian Online School

Most of your answers indicate you're looking for robust academic support, Christ-centered teaching, and a flexible yet structured online model.

Wilson Hill Academy's full-time option may be the best fit. It allows your child to thrive academically and spiritually, without placing the entire burden of teaching on you.

Learn more: www.wilsonhillacademy.com/admissions/

PATH 2: Hybrid or Single-Class Enrollment

You're looking to supplement your current homeschool or hybrid model with expert-led instruction, particularly in key subjects.

Enroll in one or more Wilson Hill courses to complement what you're already doing at home.

Learn more: www.wilsonhillacademy.com/academics/

PATH 3: Need to Explore Further

You're early in your journey and want to better understand classical Christian education before committing.

Use this time to learn more, read parent stories, and talk with families. You don't have to decide today, but you can take the next faithful step.

Start here: How to Discern If a Classical Christian Education is Right for Your Children

Want Help Talking It Through?

Schedule a free 15-minute discovery call with our team:

calendly.com/newfamilycall/15min

SCHEDULE A CALL